FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2022 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

SB 145 impacts legislator per diem if the legislature does not pass an operating budget by day 121 of a regular session. Specifically, this bill prohibits legislators from authorizing per diem retroactively beginning the day after the 121st day until the day after a bill that fully funds an operating budget is passed by the legislature or the first day of the next regular session, whichever occurs earlier.

The Legislature budgets for legislative per diem for one 30-day special session and if an operating budget was passed within the first 30-day special session, there would be a negative fiscal impact up to the amount of total unpaid per diem.

The fiscal impact of this legislation is indeterminate because it is unknown how many days it may take to pass an operating budget after the 121st day of a regular session.

NOTE: Per Article II, Sec. 8 of the Alaska Constitution, the Legislature may extend a regular session for up to 10 consecutive days; however, because the Legislature does not budget for legislative per diem for an extended regular session, there would be no impact to the Legislature's budget if an operating budget was passed within the 10-day period of an authorized extended session.
